

► National Institute for People with Disabilities of New Jersey

A member of the YAI Network.

Founded in 1998, the National Institute for People with Disabilities of New Jersey provides a range of services for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities to help them achieve the fullest life possible by creating opportunities for living, loving, working, and learning. These services include a continuum of residential programs, as well as respite and in-home services for children and adults living at home. NIPD/NJ also offers Support Coordination services in Sussex, Hudson, Union, Essex, Warren, and Somerset counties.

Additionally, NIPD/NJ offers programs for social opportunities and skill development such as the Social Skill Building Network where participants develop the skills vital to success in school, employment, and relationships, as well as the Coffee House, a weekly socialization program.
